Camp Information

This camp is designed for boys that are entering grades 3 thru 9 next school year and who want to learn the fundamentals of basketball.

Campers will be divided into age and skill groups. Each camper will have the opportunity to improve his skills as well as compete against good competition. Campers will also develop teamwork skills each day during team league play.

Campers will receive a camp t-shirt, a drink each day, and will compete for awards in each age group.

Camp will be held at Ankeney Middle School in the two inside courts. If weather permits we will also use the outside courts located at the school. Campers might want to use sun screen if they tend to get sunburned. The outside courts will be used for stations and team play during the camp.

Camp Staff

The camp staff will be made up of Beaver Creek boy's coaches from the varsity, freshman, and middle school coaching staff. Also, current and former high school players will assist in coaching campers.

A Message from the Coaches

Our camp goal is to provide a complete, in-depth basketball experience emphasizing fundamentals in order to allow young boys to reach their full potential. The Beaver Creek Boys Basketball Camp is a great place to improve your skills, compete against good players, and learn first hand the Beaver Creek success formula:

“Discipline, Teamwork, and Hard Work!”

We are anxiously awaiting your arrival at our camp this summer and look forward to helping you reach your basketball goals!

See you this summer!
